Ernst Publishing CEO Wins Charity Golf Tournament

Gregory Teal still rocks the course; son takes prize for longest drive in major tournament

ALBANY, NY—September 16, 2013—It's important to give back to the community, according to Gregory E. Teal, CEO of Ernst Publishing Company, the leading provider of technology and closing cost data for the real estate and home finance industries for the past 24 years. Besides, it can be fun, as the executive and his son found this summer when they both won honors at the Capital One 360 Kids Foundation Charity Golf Outing in Delaware. Teal and his son came in first place and his son took home a trophy for the event's longest drive.

"Win or lose, we always enjoy events that put us together with the people we work with in our industry and benefit our communities," said Teal. "A great course, an important cause, a beautiful day and the opportunity to play on a team with my son made this a must-attend event for me."

Launched in 2001 by ING DIRECT, the ING DIRECT Kids Foundation was established to improve the quality of life of children and adolescents, particularly those in Foster care, with the first priority given to programs serving foster children in low-income and urban areas. To date, ING DIRECT has made grants to Twin Towers Orphan Fund, Heroes, Inc., West End Neighborhood House, La Esperanza, Women's Christian Alliance and Foster Parents Plan. ING DIRECT Kids Foundation is a non-profit Delaware corporation recognized as a tax-exempt charitable foundation under section 501(C) 3 of the federal tax code. For more information on the foundation, please visit www.savekidsnow.org. ING DIRECT was acquired by Capital One in June 2010 and is now known as Capital One 360 which is carrying on this noble endeavor.

About the Ernst Publishing Company

The Ernst Publishing Company has been the leading authority on land recording requirements for more than two decades. In fact, Ernst's recording fee, transfer tax and title data have been integrated throughout the title and lending industries. Due to RESPA requirements that went into effect in January 2010, accurate recording fees and taxes for recording documents have never been more important. Ernst excels at creating solutions for their clients to manage not just those fees—but also all vendor fees—with unparalleled precision. As a company, our goal is simple: Empower clients to not only meet RESPA's new compliance regulations for Blocks 4-8, but set the industry standard for client satisfaction, an attainable goal due to our patented technology, impeccable data standards, expertise at creating custom solutions, and network of partners.
