CEO Gregory Teal and family team dominate the links and support worthwhile charity

ALBANY, NY—August 4, 2014—Ernst Publishing Company, the leading provider of technology and closing cost data for the real estate and home finance industries for the past 25 years, is proud to announce that the company golf team participated again this year in the Capital One “Kids Charity Classic” golf tournament . The Ernst team took first place at the annual event. This is the second time the company has taken part in the event and the second time it has won the top spot, around 210 golfers took part in the event.

“We have a responsibility to give back to the communities that support us. The fact that we can do so by participating in such a great event makes it very easy,” said Gregory E. Teal, Ernst Publishing’s President/CEO and company golf team captain. “A great course, an important cause, a beautiful day and the opportunity to play on a team with my wife and sons made this a must-attend event for me.”

For the second year, the event was held at the beautiful DuPont Country Club. Proceeds will benefit the Police Athletic League of Wilmington as it works to help kids make smart choices and live healthy lifestyles through sports programs. The event achieved its goal of raising $75,000 for this worthy cause.
